

Boston Culinary Adventure
September 24 – 26, 2012

Monday, September 24 Freedom Trail Tour, Chocolate tour & Dinner with Cooking Demonstration

Late morning, we'll arrive in Boston and enjoy some free time for lunch on our own at Faneuil Hall Marketplace. Then, we'll meet our local tour guide and embark on a tour of Boston's historic Freedom Trail. Highlights include, The Boston Common, Old State House, Park Street Church and USS Constitution. Later, we'll tour Boston's only Chocolate Factory -Taza Chocolate! Enjoy a 'behind the scenes tour' of the factory, enjoy samples and view their amazing vintage chocolate making machines as they create chocolate from 'bean-to-bar'! Tonight, we'll enjoy a delicious dinner at Maggiano's Little Italy with a private cooking demonstration by one of their talented Chefs and learn how to create one of their signature pasta dishes step by step! Meals – Dinner

Tuesday, September 25 Italian Culinary tour and Luncheon & Harbor Cruise & Historic Pub Crawl

Start the day with a continental breakfast, before setting out for our North End Culinary tour which will include a brief history of an Italian American neighborhood. Our guide will weave in the cultural and history of the neighborhood while we enjoy the colorful sights, tantalizing aromas and authentic tastes of America's most vibrant Italian neighborhood. Learn about the most important Italian ingredients; olive oils, balsamic vinegars, olives cheese, as well as pastries, cannoli, biscotti and other confections. Following the tour, enjoy lunch at one of the guide's favorite trattorias! This afternoon, a trip to Boston would not be complete without a Boston Harbor Cruise! Sit back, relax and enjoy the salt kissed breeze as we take in the beautiful coastal scenery. Then, we'll meet our 18th century costumed guide to lead us on our fun-filled Historic Pub Crawl! Visit the real headquarters where the American Revolution was brewed - Bell in Hand, Green Dragon, Union Oyster House, and The Point. At each pub taste some contemporary Boston fare and enjoy four different sample-size Sam Adams beers. Meals - Continental Breakfast, Lunch, Appetizers/beer

Wednesday, September 26 Sam Adams Brewery Tour & Depart for home

This morning, enjoy breakfast before we depart for home with delicious memories of our Boston Culinary adventure! Enjoy a free morning along the harbor and free time at Quincy Market and lunch on your own before a visit to the famous Samuel Adams brewery for a tour and tasting! Even receive the recipe to take home with us! Depart for home taking along our fun memories of our Boston Culinary Adventure! Meals – Continental Breakfast
